Mission Statement:

Transplants for Children assists children and their families in mastering the lifelong challenges of pediatric organ transplantation.

PROJECT INFORMATION

Program / Project Title:

Pediatric to Adult Care Transition Support Program

PROJECT TIMELINE

Start Date	End Date
01/01/2021	12/31/2021

Program / Project Description:

Lifesaving organ transplantation offers hope for a second chance at life. Recovery takes months, even for the most resilient patient. Though the once threatening disease may be gone, the child faces the challenge of organ rejection and complex medical routines for the rest of their lives, becoming even more complicated as they transition from pediatric to adult care. Organ recipients are now expected to manage their care completely with significantly less clinic support. TFC as a support mechanism from the beginning assists families and children to master these challenges. The Pediatric to Adult Care Transition (PACT) Support program is designed to keep these children alive and see them through the most difficult parts of being post-transplant. From the beginning the children participate as "Star Gazers" building bonds with their parents, siblings and new TFC friends. Children then age into the STARS program and work with a mentor to build the necessary skills for transition. All the while building incentives for these children, with the help and support of their families, siblings, friends and their transplant Mentor to become a "TFC STAR" and earn recognition of their accomplishment and a scholarship toward post-high school education. All along the way our families, organ recipients and siblings have access through our partners for mental health care. All this work from the time a young patient begins the journey that leads to a transplant, TFC is there with the goal of helping them navigate and master the many challenges they face.

Evaluation Plan:

TFC continues to work closely with Texas A&M University - San Antonio and Dr. Elisabeth Krimbill to review, evaluate and make course corrections as needed. These changes may be made because of evaluation from participants, partner medical professionals, published and peer reviewed research and new partnerships made along the journey (Franklin/Covey Institute and Clarity Child Guidance Center). The need for our immune-suppressed transplant recipients to be particularly safe during the COVID-19 pandemic has required we make dramatic changes to our program delivery which we are just now evaluating its effectiveness and receiving high marks across the board.

Plans to sustain project beyond the term of this request:

Transplants for Children will continue to ensure full funding of this program through a mix of foundation and corporate partners as well as individual donors. The events of 2020 have caused difficulty in the clearest path forward, but the reputation of the program and its growing success has brought more partners to the discussion. We look forward to being able to host large scale revenue producing events possibly in 2022 and beyond.
